Home Care

Home Care

It is the kind of care given to patients and their families in their homes to improve and stabilize their health conditions.  Home care services also involve providing treatment to reduce the effects of disability and illness through conducting home visits by experienced professionals doctors, nurses, therapists, specialists, and home health support services.

Who are the patients eligible or in need of home care?

Those patients who have chronic diseases, and incapable to reach Al Hayat Medical Centers clinics such as:

* Cancer patients in the final stages with a difficulty of movement.

* Patients with physical disabilities (paralysis) due to strokes, accidents and others.

* Bed bound patients who are in need of care or tube feeding through the nose or a feeding tube directly through the stomach.

Copyright © 2019 AL HAYAT MEDICAL CENTERS. All rights reserved

Web Development by: Beyond Designs